To Whom It May Concern,

For the past 22 years local author and director Richard Tolliver has coordinated, produced and directed the Annual Angel Tree Benefit in conjunction with Zanesville Community Theatre and now The Renner, Home of Zane Trace Players. Together, these theaters, in conjunction with this annual production to raise money to help support the Salvation Army's annual drive to help those in need, also hold a raffle. This raffle raises approximately one third of their overall contribution. Thanks to businesses, such as yourselves, we have been able to greatly enhance our efforts to give something back to the community. For the past several years, we have averaged helping over sixty children a year. We would greatly appreciate your consideration in helping us help these children this year. Zanesville Community Theatre and The Renner, Home of Zane Trace Players are non-profit organizations. Your donations are tax deductible. We will also proudly display your name along with your contribution for the run of the show on Zanesville Community Theatre's website, The Renner's website and in our show program.

This year's show "THE LAST CHRISTMAS ON RADIO" is a Christmas variety show featuring the talents of community members from the young to the young at heart. Our show will be held at The Renner, Home of Zane Trace Players on Thursday, December 12, Friday, December 13, Saturday, December 14 and Sunday, December 15. Our address is 148 N. 7th Street in Zanesville.

This year, The Renner, Home of Zane Trace Players is hosting the event. Together, Zanesville's community theaters hope to help even more families that are adversely affected during these trying economic times. It's a joint venture that shares the love of the arts while helping members of our community.

We appreciate your time and consideration.

Yours Truly,

Richard L. Tolliver
